Hhhhhhhhhh Numb. 6340.

The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, February 15. 1722.

London, February 15.
Yeſterday arrived a Mail from Flanders.

Lisbon, January 15.

THE 1ſt Inſtant, being the Feaſt of the Circumciſion, the Queen, accompanied by the Prince of the Brazils and the Infantes, went to the Jeſuits Church to hear the Grand Maſs, and viſited afterwards the Noviciate Colleges of that Society. Chriſtian Wagenar, a Calviniſt, of 30 Years of Age, born at Duſſeldorp in Germany, and Julian Scryf, a Lutheran, Native of Amſterdam, made publick Renunciation of their former Religions, and embraced that of Rome, in the Church of the Dominican Fryars: The Ceremony being performed by Father Semete of the Order of St. Dominick, and Chaplain to the Flemiſh Roman Catholicks. The Conde d'Obidos, the Conde de St. John, Don Antonia de Sylveira de Albuquerque, and Don Manoel Joſepho Sampoayo and Mello, eldeſt Son of the Viceroy in the Eaſt-Indies, are appointed Captains of the four Troops of Horſe which the King has newly added to the two Regiments in Garriſon in this City. The Conde de Soure, and Don Diego de Souſa, have likewiſe obtained the Command of two vacant Companies, one in the Province of Alentejo, and the other in the Province of Beyra. It appears by a yearly Calculation publiſhed here of Ships belonging to different Nations, that the following Numbers have entred this Port the laſt Year, viz. 329 Ships of Great Britain, beſides ſome Men of War, and 18 Packet-Boats; 72 Ships of Holland; 71 French; 13 Hambourghers; ſeven Daniſh; two Swediſh; one Malteze, and 359 Portugueze belonging to different Cities of this Kingdom, beſides the Ships that have arrived here from the Brazils. According to the ſame Calculation, the Number of Ships outward-bound from hence the laſt Year, are, viz. 302 Ships of Great Britain, two Men of War and 19 Packet-Boats of the ſame Nation; 69 Dutch Ships; 63 French; 24 Spaniſh; three Hambourghers; eight Genoeze; ſix Daniſh; two Swediſh; one Malteze, and 116 Portugueze, including the Brazil Fleets and Ships ſent to the Eaſt-Indies. There are at preſent lying in this River, and before the Port, 34 Britiſh Ships; 15 French; four Spaniſh; four Dutch; three Daniſh, and a Hambourg Pink.

Petersbourg, Jan. 19 The Czar has given Orders for printing the Old and New Teſtament in the Ruſſian Language: The Edition is to be made at Amſterdam, and a fair Side is to be left againſt every Page for Theological Remarks to be thereon inſerted by ſuch Divines as ſhall be appointed for that purpoſe. Each Family is to buy one of theſe Bibles, and ſome are to be ſold at a moderate Price for the uſe of the Poor. It is ſaid alſo, that none of his Czariſh Majeſty's Subjects will be ſuffered to Marry, unleſs they can prove themſelves to be Poſſeſſors of this Holy Book, that they underſtand it, and are able to teach it to their Families. The Czar, being purpoſed to draw his Subjects from the groſs Ignorance they have lived in for Ages, partly by the fault of thoſe Perſons who were appointed to inſtruct them better, has expreſly ordered the Clergy in his Dominions to preach for the future after the Method practiſed in the moſt enlightned Parts of Europe, and to advance no Doctrines but ſuch as are truly conformable to Holy-Writ and the Tradition moſt univerſally received. Letters of the 12th Inſtant from Moſcow ſay, that all Preſidents of Councils and Courts of Juſtice who are Senators, are to be removed, becauſe the Czar is determined to form a ſuperiour Senate, to which Appeals are to be hereafter admitted from inferiour Courts of Judicature.

Naples, Jan. 20. 'On the 17th Inſtant, being the Feſtival of St. Anthony, the Viceroy, with the Vice-Queen, preceeded by a Batallion of Infantry, ſome Troops of Cuiraſſiers, and all the Swiſs Guards, went to pay their Devotions at St. Anthony's Church, belonging to the Abbey of Cardinal Pignatelli, our Archbiſhop. On the 15th, at Night, the Prince of Villa-franca, a Sicilian, and Grandee of Spain, arrived here Poſt from Vienna. The Prince having paid a Viſit to the Viceroy, he appointed him a Guard of Germans, and a Company of Grenadiers, and in the Evening the Viceroy returned the Prince's Viſit. He is attended at preſent with the Coaches of his Couſin the Dutcheſs of Carvezzano, and purpoſes to continue here only a few Days, to ſee the Curioſities of this City, and will then imbark for Sicily. The Dutcheſs of Monteleone, Vice-Queen of Sicily, being afflicted in the Month of December laſt with Pains in her Side, implored Relief from the glorious St. Paſquale Baylon, whoſe miraculous Image and Relicks are highly venerated in the Royal Church of Sta Maria Nova in this City, and upon a Vow the Dutcheſs made to dreſs herſelf in the Habit of St. Francis, ſhe was inſtantly relieved, and freed from Pain. Accordingly upon Chriſtmas Day laſt, the Reverend Father Giuſtino di Craco, Divinity-Profeſſor, and Viſitor-General of the Franciſcan Convent, repaired to the Houſe of the fore-named excellent Lady, bleſſed the Habit, and put it upon her, carrying with him likewiſe the Relicks of that Saint, which were devoutly touched by many of the Nobility and Ladies there preſent.

Bruſſels, Feb. 11. 'The fine Coaches and Liveries made here for the Wedding of the young Princeſs d'Auvergne, cannot be ſent to Bergen-op-zoom till the 13th Inſtant. Two young German Officers belonging to the Garriſon in this City having quarrell'd at a publick Ball in the Grand Theatre on Sunday Night laſt, fought with Piſtols the next Morning: One of them received a Shot under the Right Arm quite through his Body, of which 'tis feared he can hardly recover; and the other has taken Sanctuary in the Convent of Dominicans. The Count de Laſcaris, who is lineally deſcended from the Emperours of Conſtantinople, and the Count's Predeceſſours from the Reign of Conſtantine the Fifteenth, having been acknowledged by divers Princes to be true Deſcendants of the Emperours who bore the Name of Paleologus Comnénes, the Count therefore now propoſes to execute the Privilege annexed to his Family, of conferring the Order of the Knights of Jeruſalem; and 'tis ſaid that ſeveral Perſons have deſired to be inveſted with that Dignity.

Briſtol, Feb. 12. This Day arrived the Callaban Merchant from Virginia; ſhe came from Rapahanoch River.
